Powerful data analysis and state reporting including robust, ad-hoc reporting how you want to see it, when you need it. Plus, we are unmatched in meeting all your state and federal reporting needs.

> I have been associated with Skyward for about 15 years. The school administration program has been phenominal. It's easy to learn and versatile enough to provide me with all the necessary tools I need to operate efficiently.
>
> Dennis Matreci, assistant principal
> St John Vianney High School, MO

At its core, our solution is communication-driven that promotes interaction between students, parents and staff so that everyone is focusing on the same goal – providing the best education possible for all your students.

Lastly, our customers appreciate the easy to learn powerful, intuitive solution that eliminates the anxiety of learning a new system and is backed by a company-direct support team that is the best in the industry.

Skyward is the only complete solution for all your needs from the classroom to the board room. Pick the K-12 administrative software that is always available and has the capability to manage all needs in one solution.

LONG TERM VALUE

A solution that exceeds your needs now and in the future at a cost that is worth the investment.

Your student information system is more vital now than ever before when it comes to managing your district.

With ever-changing reporting needs, enhancing collaboration between students and teachers, or analyzing student progress, you need a system that grows with you and works perfectly along the way.

Choose the solution that provides you the best value with the flexibility and ease of use you need. You can also take advantage of numerous paperless processes that reduces redundant work and saves your district time and money.

Skyward districts appreciate being able to access their software using their laptop, tablet, or even phone.

COMMUNICATION DRIVEN

Open the lines of communication between students, parents, and staff so everyone is focusing on the same goal - providing the best education for your students.

More engaged and more involved is how customers describe the impact of Skyward on their communication efforts.

How? By bringing all the members of your education team -- staff, students, and parents -- together on an ongoing basis, creating open lines of communication that positively impacts everyone.

Whether it is a friendly reminder or emergency announcement, Skyward provides your district the solution that you need and that parents openly applaud as an invaluable tool in monitoring their child's education.

Skyward's Skylert notification system can send thousands of emergency messages in just minutes.

> Like many families, my wife and I work full time. The information in Family Access is a valuable tool that allows us to have meaningful conversations with our daughter about her school work and academic progress.
